LANCE 77

Constance,
You foolish goose
This year was to excellent in Pulda's class. What a blast. We better be in some more this year
foolishness. And our team is (baseball)
GREAT!!!
Love Ann

Connie,
It was a pleasure
knowing this year. Sorry
I don't know whatever to say. Jessy Tyler Stowell

Connie,
Didn't really get to know you much, but
it was fun anyway.
Carla

Dear Connie,

How's your toenail? Hey- we really had a blast this year goofing around in classes. (especially Mr. Pulda's- remember his smile?) You are really a fun person to be with and I hope we always are friends. I hope you're in a lot of my classes so we can be really rowdie & have fun instead of being bored. Our baseball team was great- as usual- and it was a lot of fun teasing you all year. Have fun & stay as you are (queer) NO, JUST KIDDING.

Love,
Di

REMEMBER:
not Milwaukee,
not Kenosha,
Racine!

ahhh

Connie —
Oh, I know
you since grade-school & I still think you're one
of the nicest kids.
We had too much
fun on the baseball team. Wow! City
Champs for 3 yrs!
Keep cheer &
keep teams &
get A's. Lots of fun. Hope you do in classes &
have a great
year.

Connie I was just glad you're in my class. love ya Molly.

Hey Con.
You Big Mac attack!
been nice knowing
ya
Sheriffa

(Connie)

Baseball has been so fun + so has geometry class. Olson, she was so bad. Just taught. Otherwise the way she stays good + don't do anything. I wouldn't do it!!

Chris

Connie—
Thanks for taking your bus money in the lunch line. Glad we're getting to be good friends. Wish we'd gotten to know each other a lot better this year.
Stay yourself,
Kath

Connie B
Had a lot of fun this year in school + 0
and baseball—Hope
have more fun next year. Better have the same team next year—but you'll be catcher—OK?
You alone can be catcher—OK?
See ya ya a couple of

Connie,
Wera going to have to get in the same Gym
class again this year we had a blast. At last didn't hurt your ankle. Well I think we'll ba champs ware going to have next year. We'll have real fun this year.

Once on a frigid wintery night,
a man stood before an empty hearth.
"Make me warm," he said, "Give me fire
and in exchange I'll bring you wood."
The man was nearly frozen before he realized that the fire wouldn't warm him unless he took the initiative and first provided the fuel.

Connel
We had fun this year
but to bad we where not in any classes, but we have to something about that the last two years. It was fun an the baseball team
with ya, and we'll have to check into the PDQ
more often.

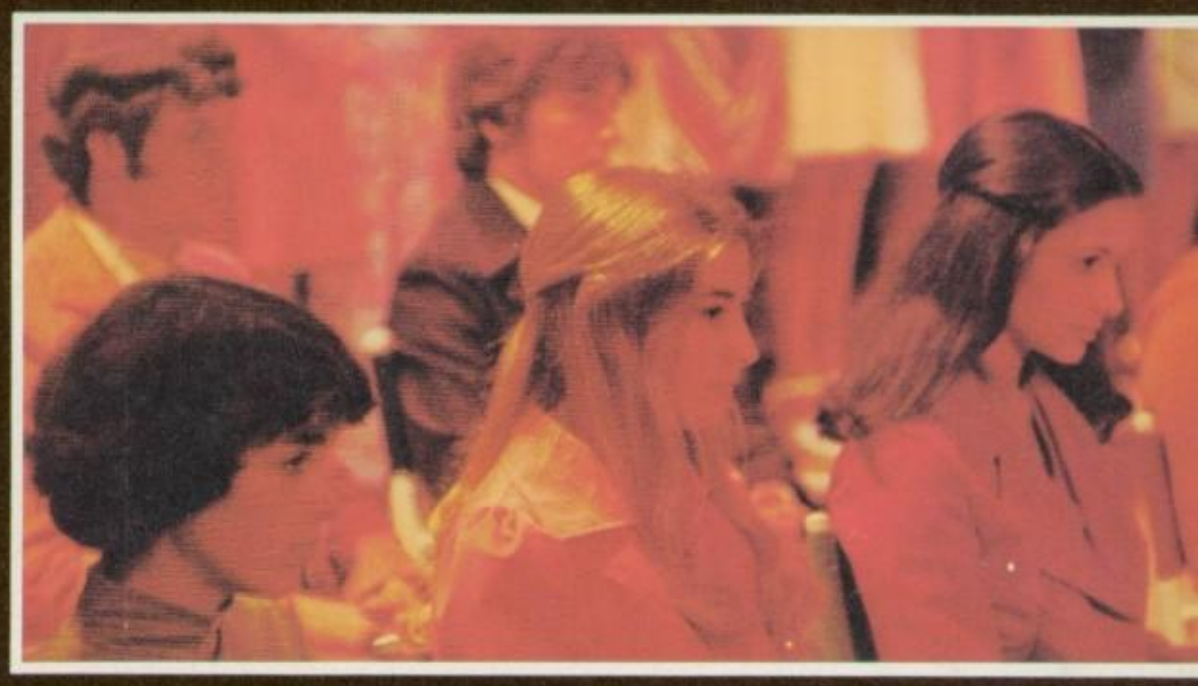
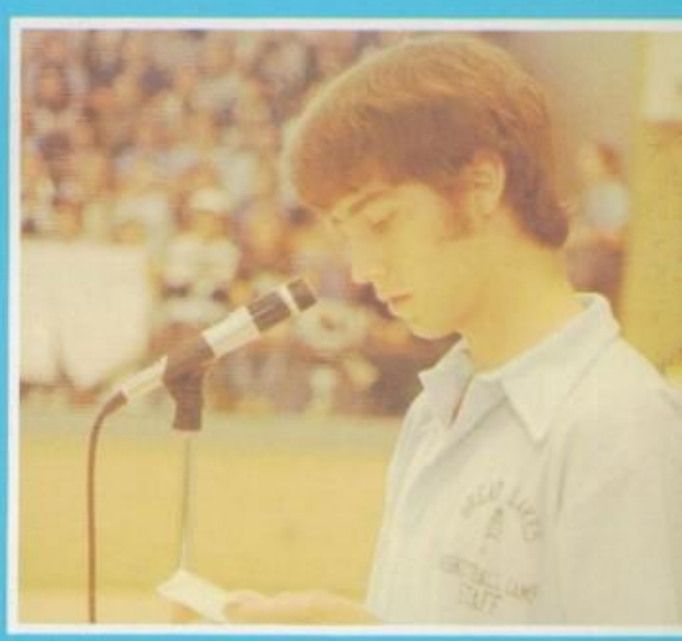
Homecoming festivities were ignited this year by the crowning of our Queen. Excitement intensified as each girl and her escort were spotlighted on stage. Both audience and court anxiously waited until Master of Ceremony, Jerry Papara, announced the 1976 Homecoming Queen. As the crowd rose and applauded, former queen Julie Carls "Reached Out" to crown Jeanine Cantele.

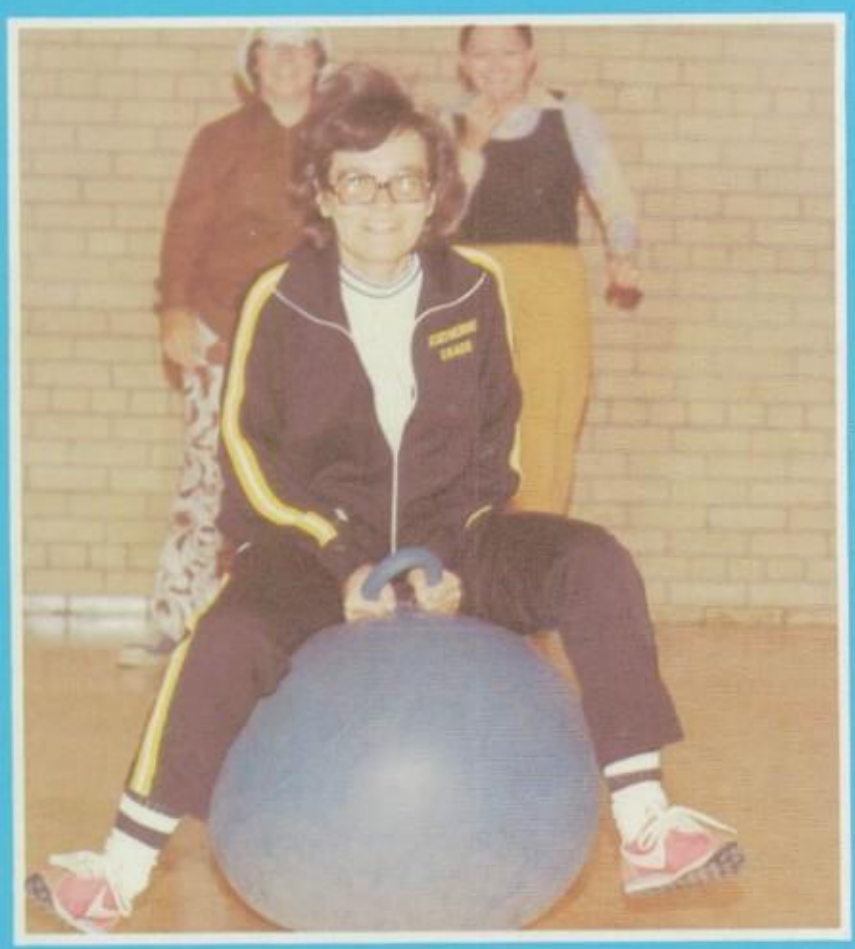


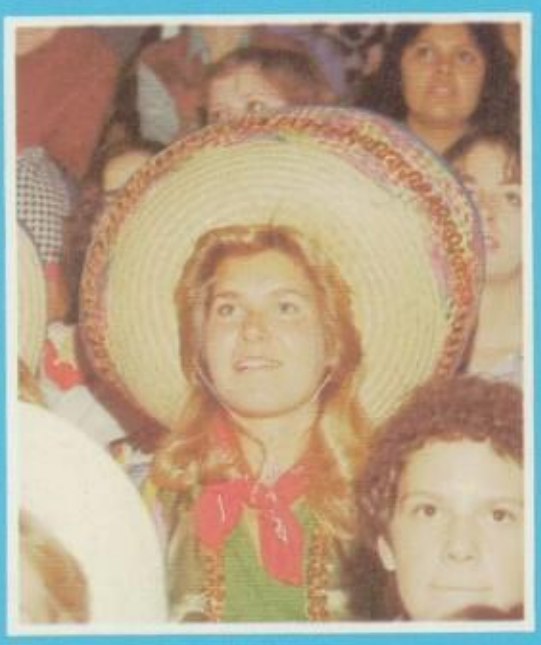
I celebrate myself,
and sing myself.

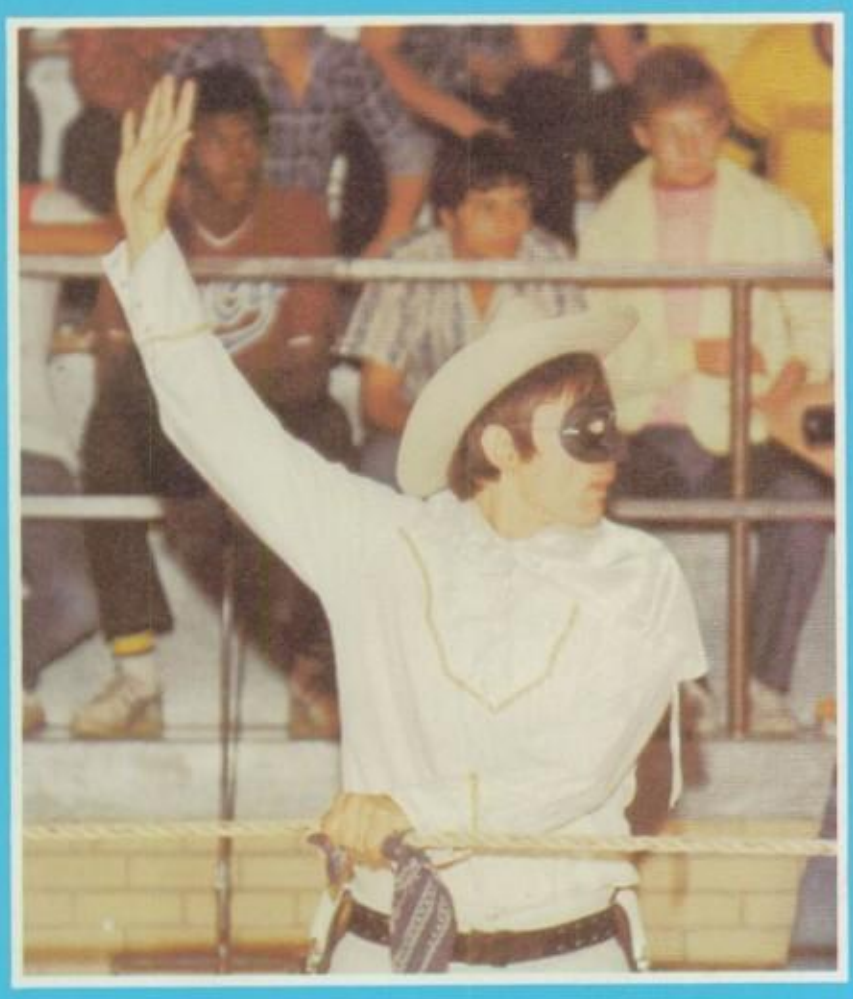
Fall is the time of year when Nature bursts into full color and we feel the crisp freshness of the new season. Taking our cue from autumn, we too celebrated and showed our true colors on the crazy-filled Spirit Days of Homecoming week.



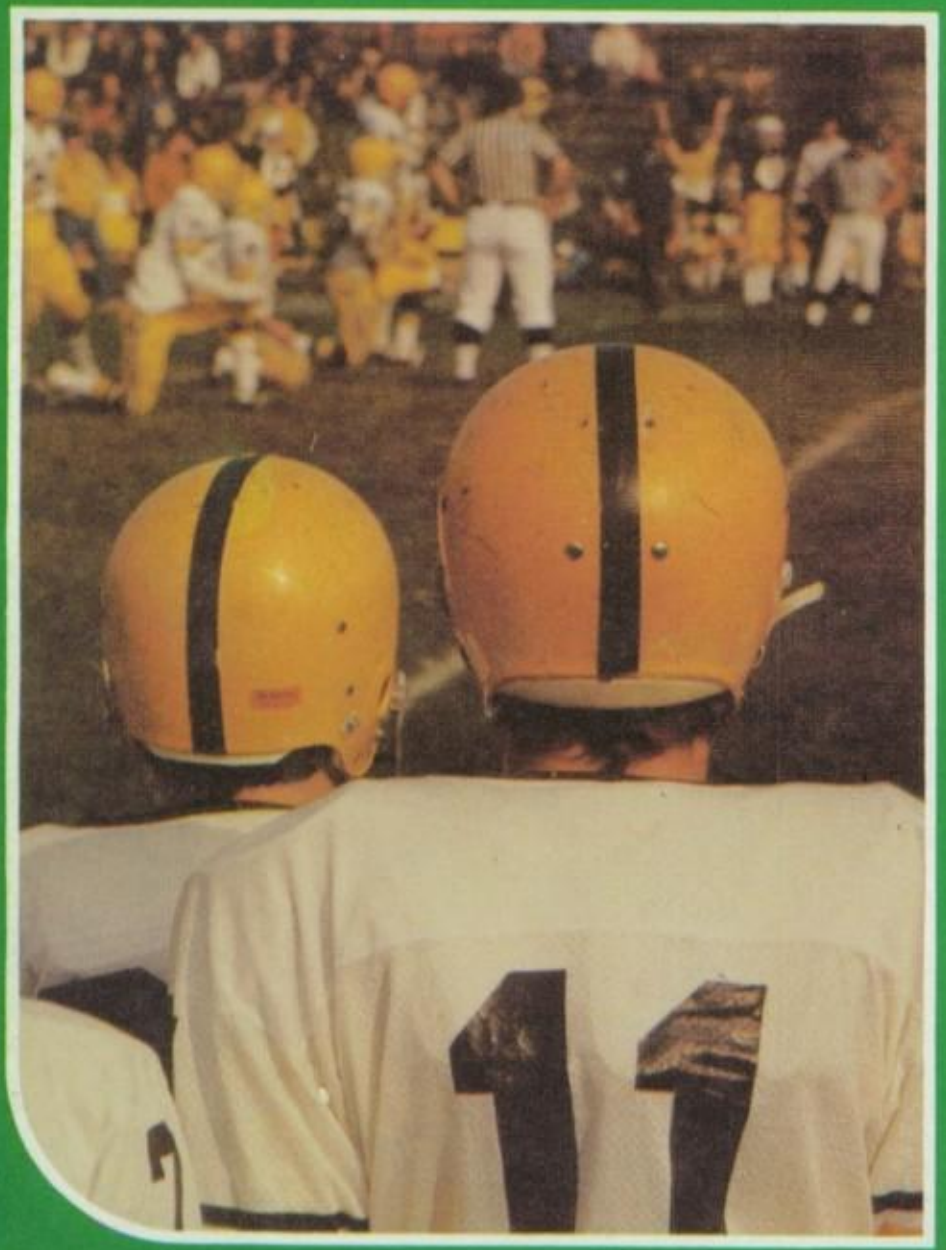
And of these one and all I weave the song of myself.

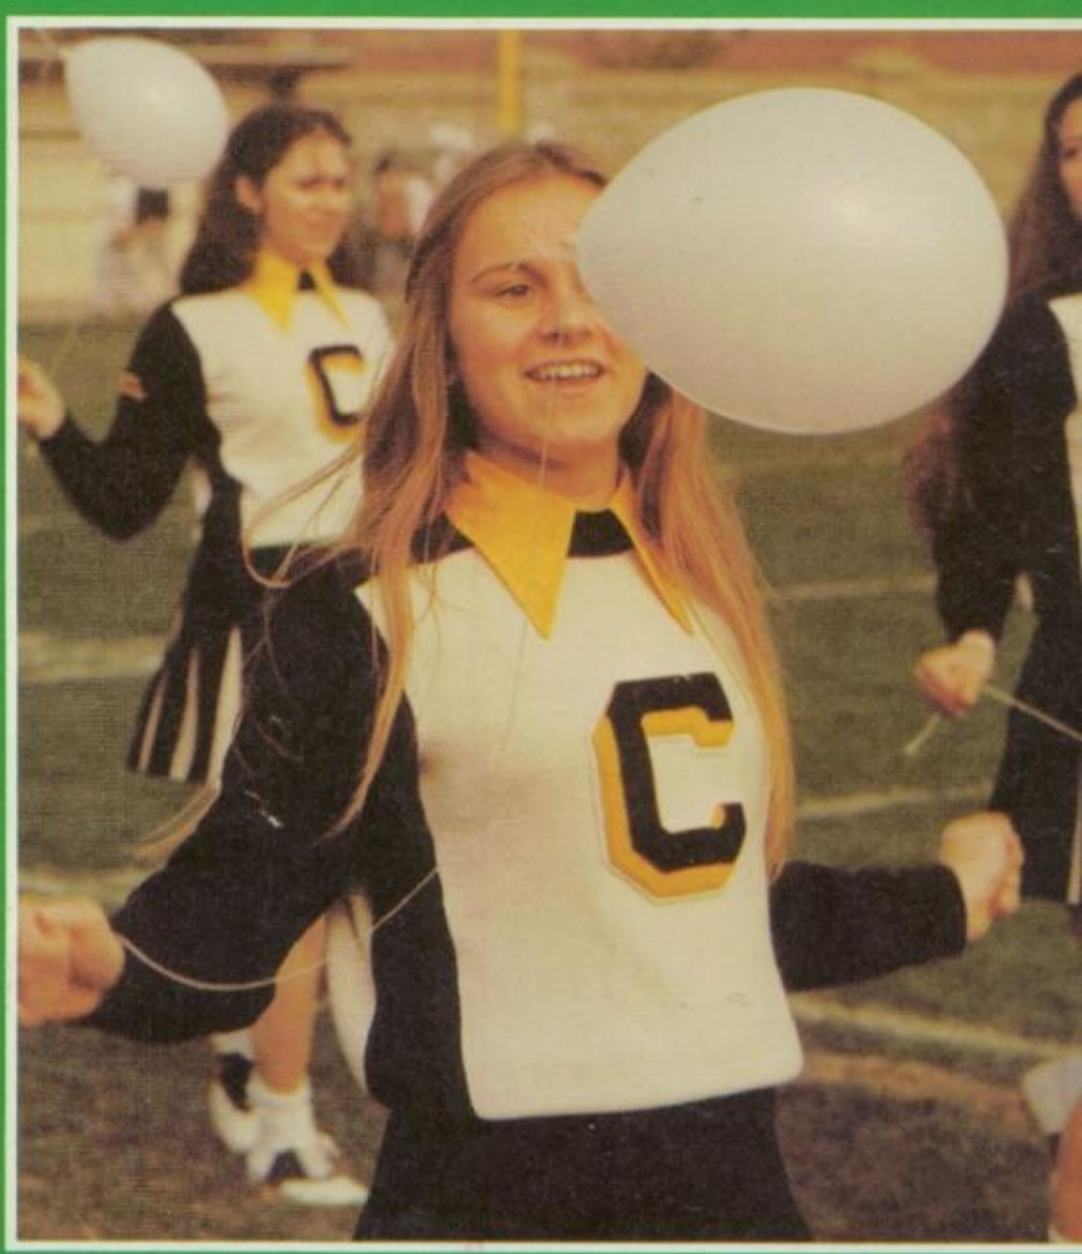






Following an exhausting week of Homecoming preparations, float builders, faculty, and friends gathered for a chance to "celebrate themselves." Highlights of the celebration included a pre-game mass, parade, game, and dance.

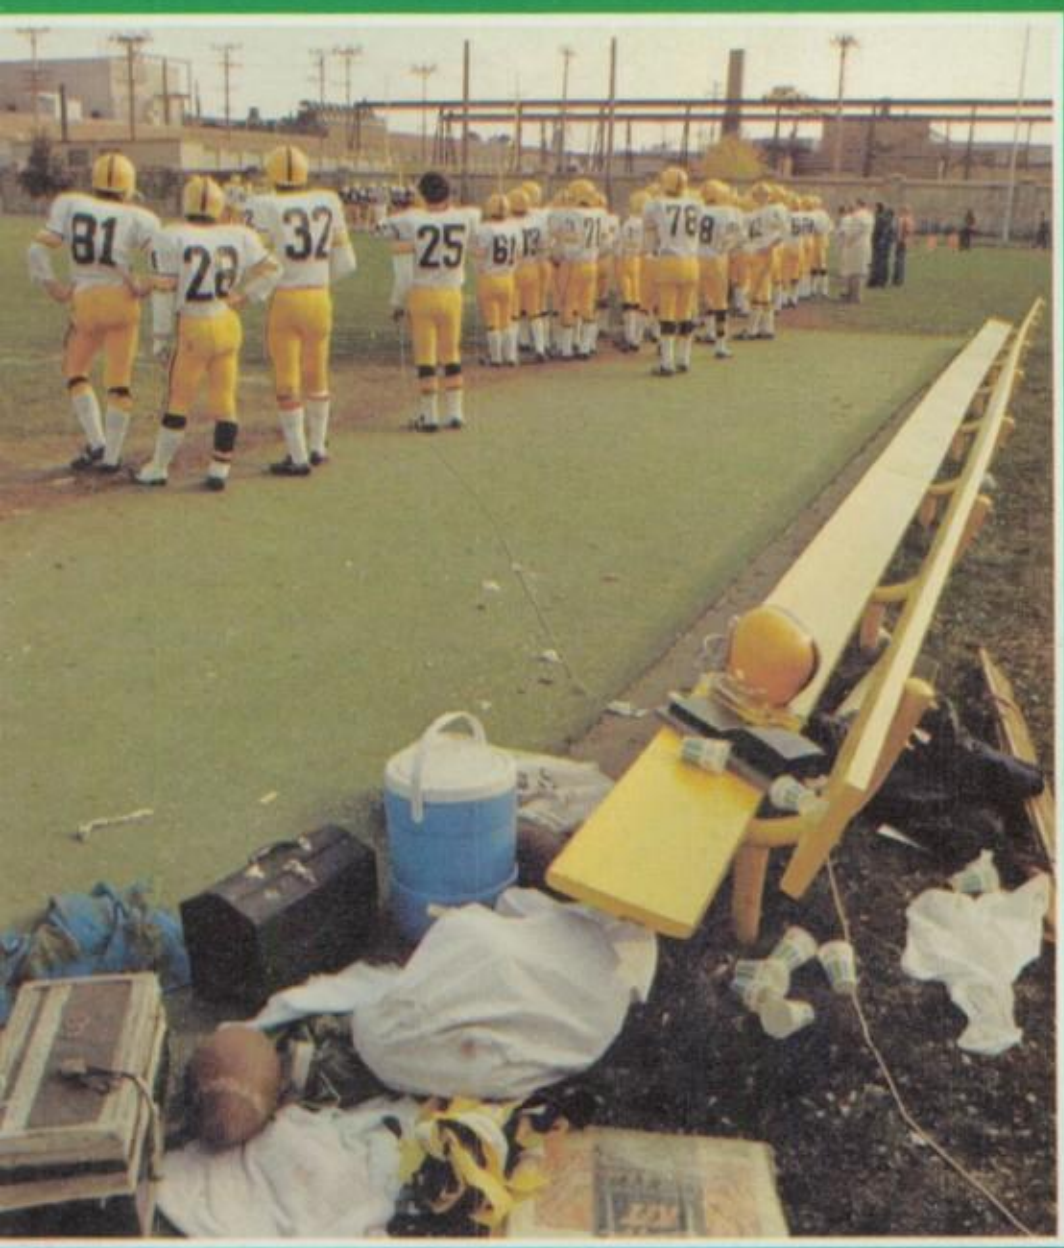




With music strong I come, with my coronets and my drum.

Have you heard that it was good to gain the day? I also say it is good to fall, battles are lost in the same spirit in which they are won.

— Walt Whitman



Staging Interim '77 required many behind-the-scene efforts. This included organizing courses, tabulating student choices, contacting prospective instructors by endless phone calls, and finally, rescheduling an entire student body. What resulted was a nearly flawless production that provided something of interest for all involved. Encore!

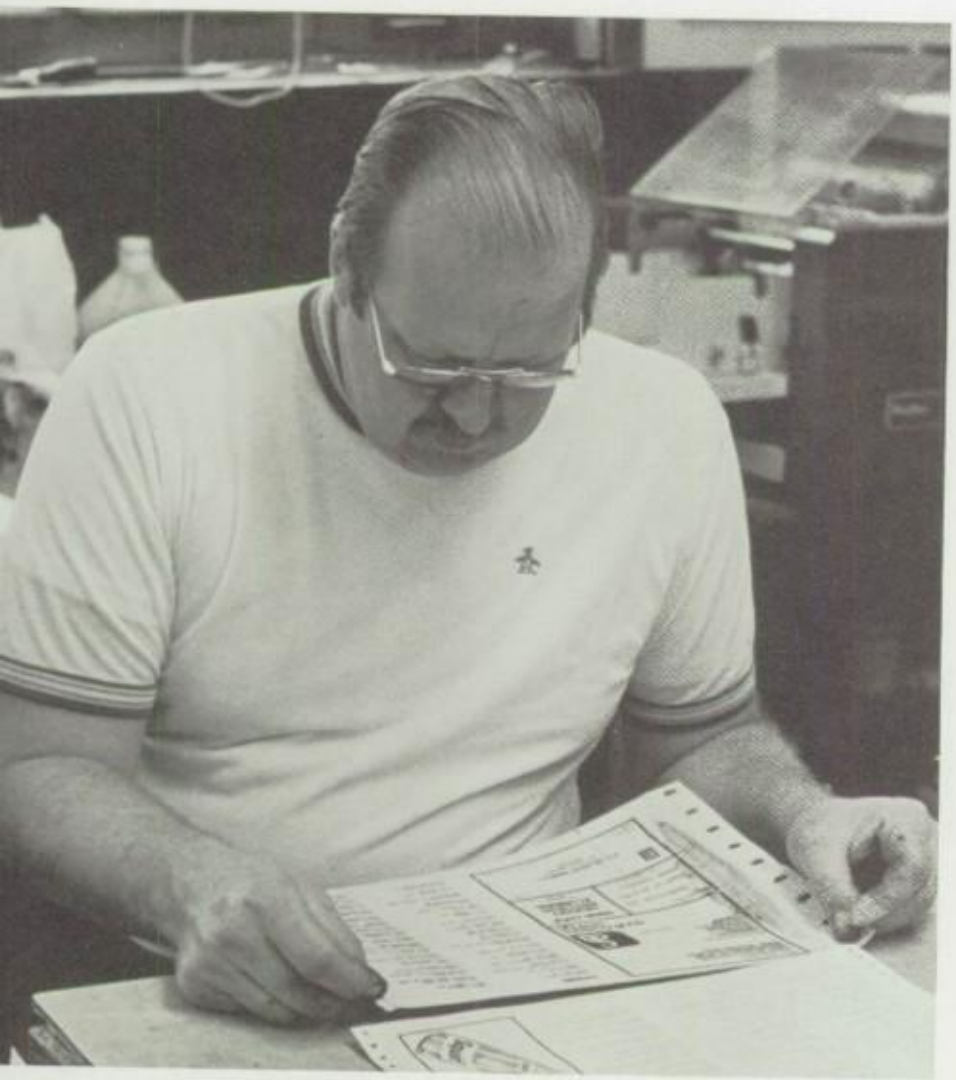
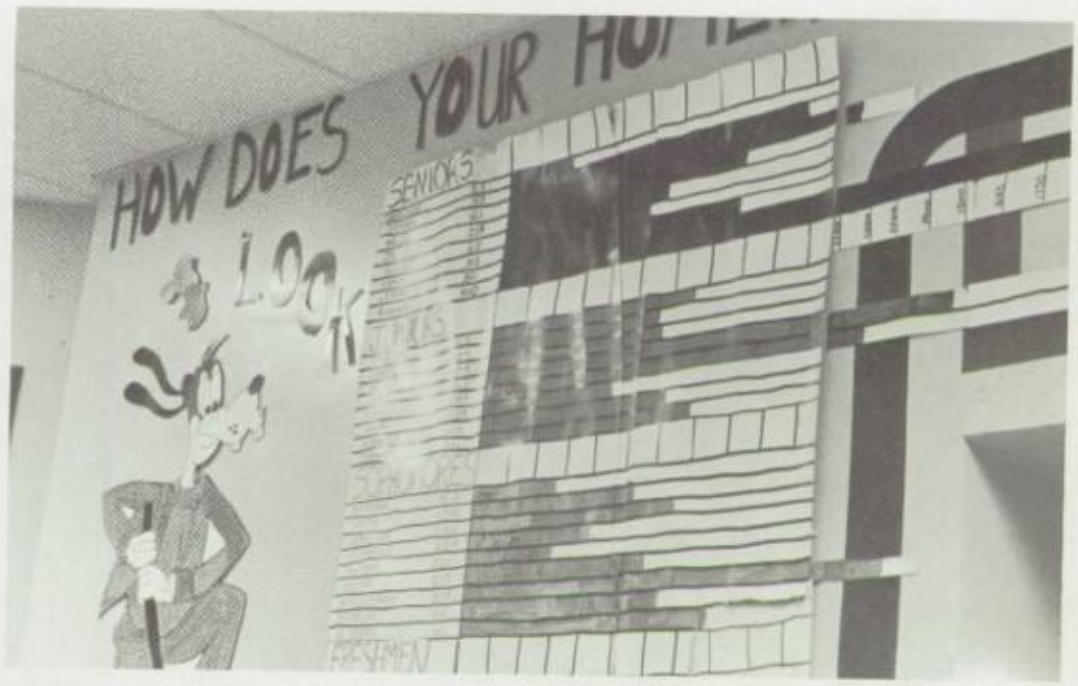
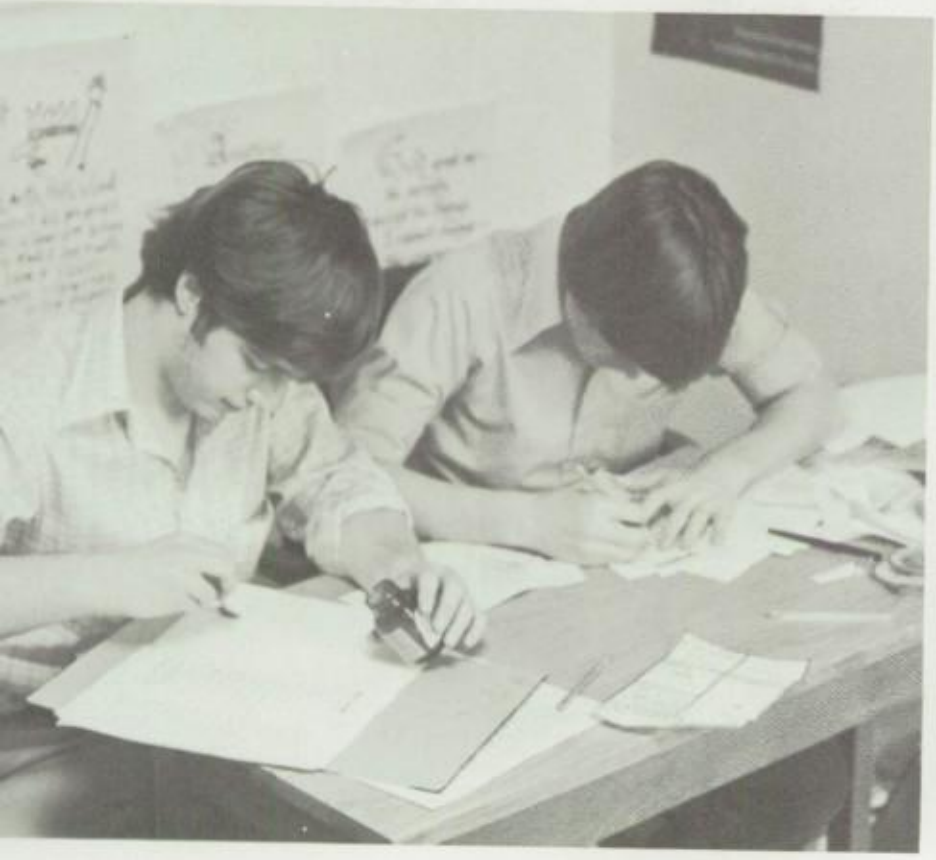
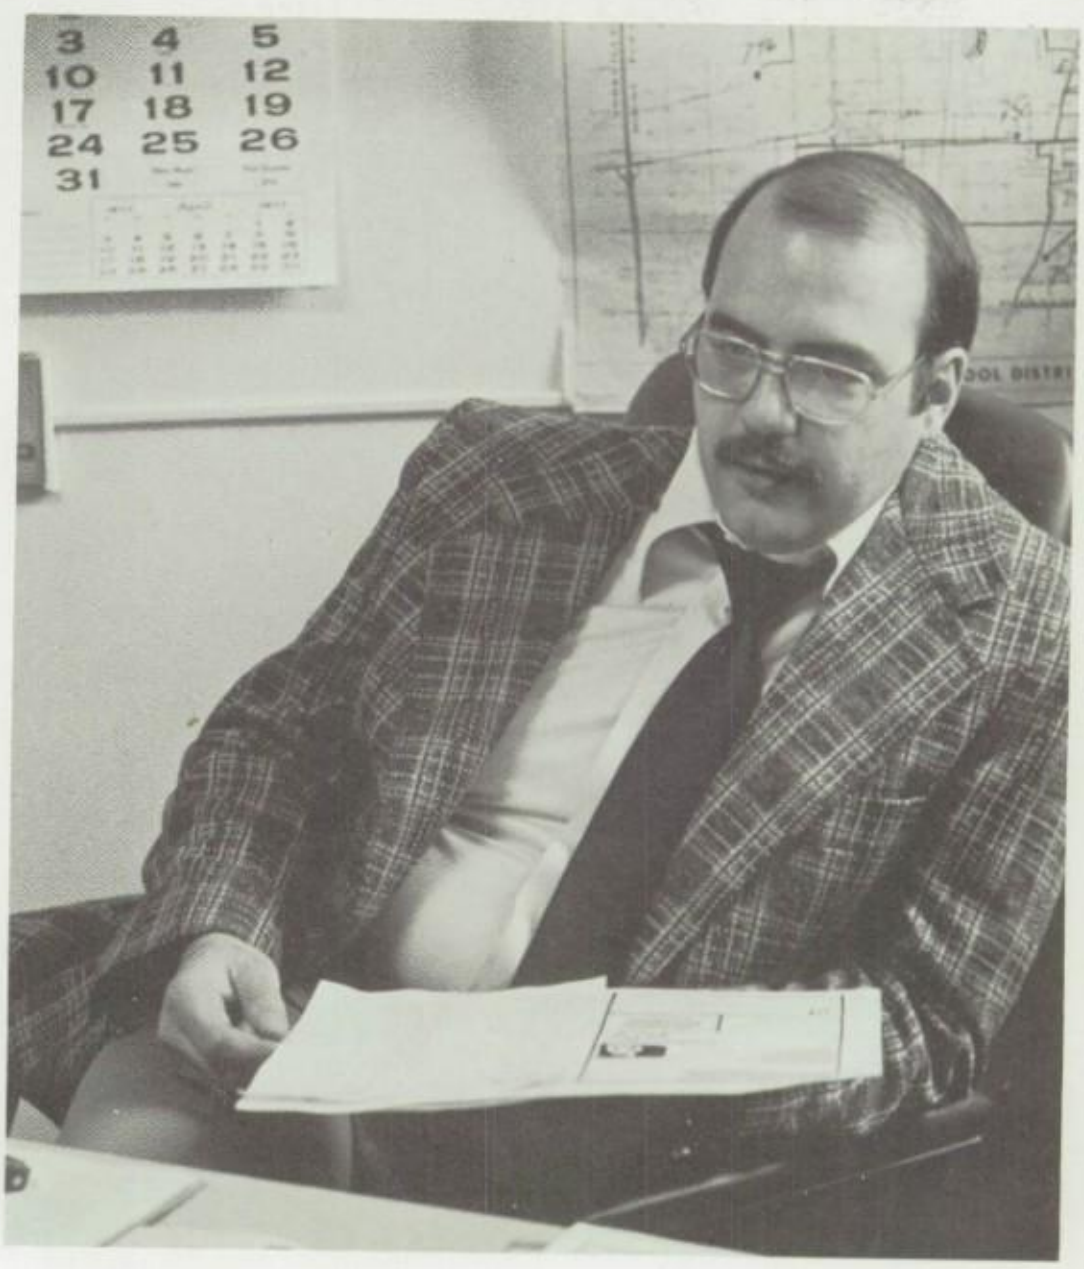
PATRON DRIVE '77 — EVERYBODY'S A WINNER!

Another successful year for the annual SCHS Patron Drive — thanks to Mr. Dopke, his helpers, and patrons.









1977 was the year that . . . Jimmy Carter was promoted from peanuts to President; amnesty was granted to Viet Nam draft evaders; coffee prices soared to $4.35 per pound; temperatures continually dipped to below zero outside and thermostats were set at 65 inside (even at the White House); Lances sold for $10.50, milk was 20¢ per pint; students suffered from "Big Mac Attacks"; TV's Farrah Fawcett-Majors tuned in as Mary Tyler Moore tuned out; All the President's Men, Rocky, Network and A Star Is Born vied for best motion picture award; and Peter Frampton said, "Thank You!"

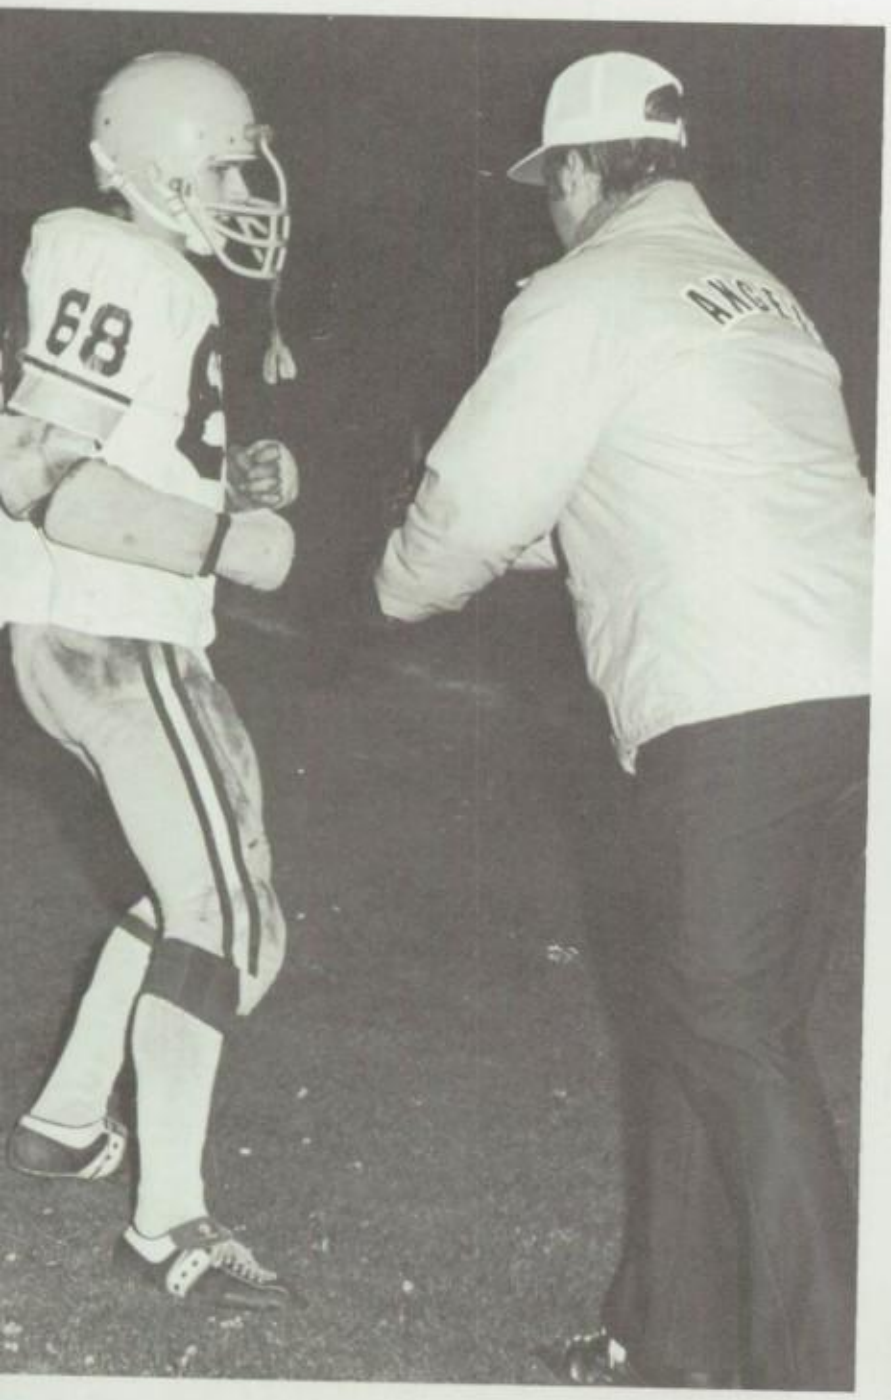
ANGELS FARE WELL IN TOUCHDOWN CITY

"Chow-Chow-Chow!"



SCHS gridders had another respectable season finishing with a 7-2 record. With no great emphasis on just one player, the Angels relied on teamwork and balance to achieve victory.

GIRLS CROSS COUNTRY HAS 1st SEASON SUCCESS — INDEPENDENTLY

When you run, you run alone, but the victory is shared.

Female competition took on a new dimension this year with the birth of the Girls' Cross Country Club. Through their own initiative they not only formed their own team, found their own coach, (Lenny Marsh) and provided their own uniforms, but they also earned the reputation of being a championship team. Looks like another winning tradition has been established at St. Cat's.

ANGEL HARRIERS TRAVEL THE MILES

Joe Blommel accepts his trophy from Coach Scheller at the Angel Invitational.

This year's Cross Country Team had many obstacles to overcome such as inexperience and unpredicted injuries. However, hidden in their inexperience was undiscovered talent that supplemented the leadership of the returning lettermen to give the Angel harriers a successful season.

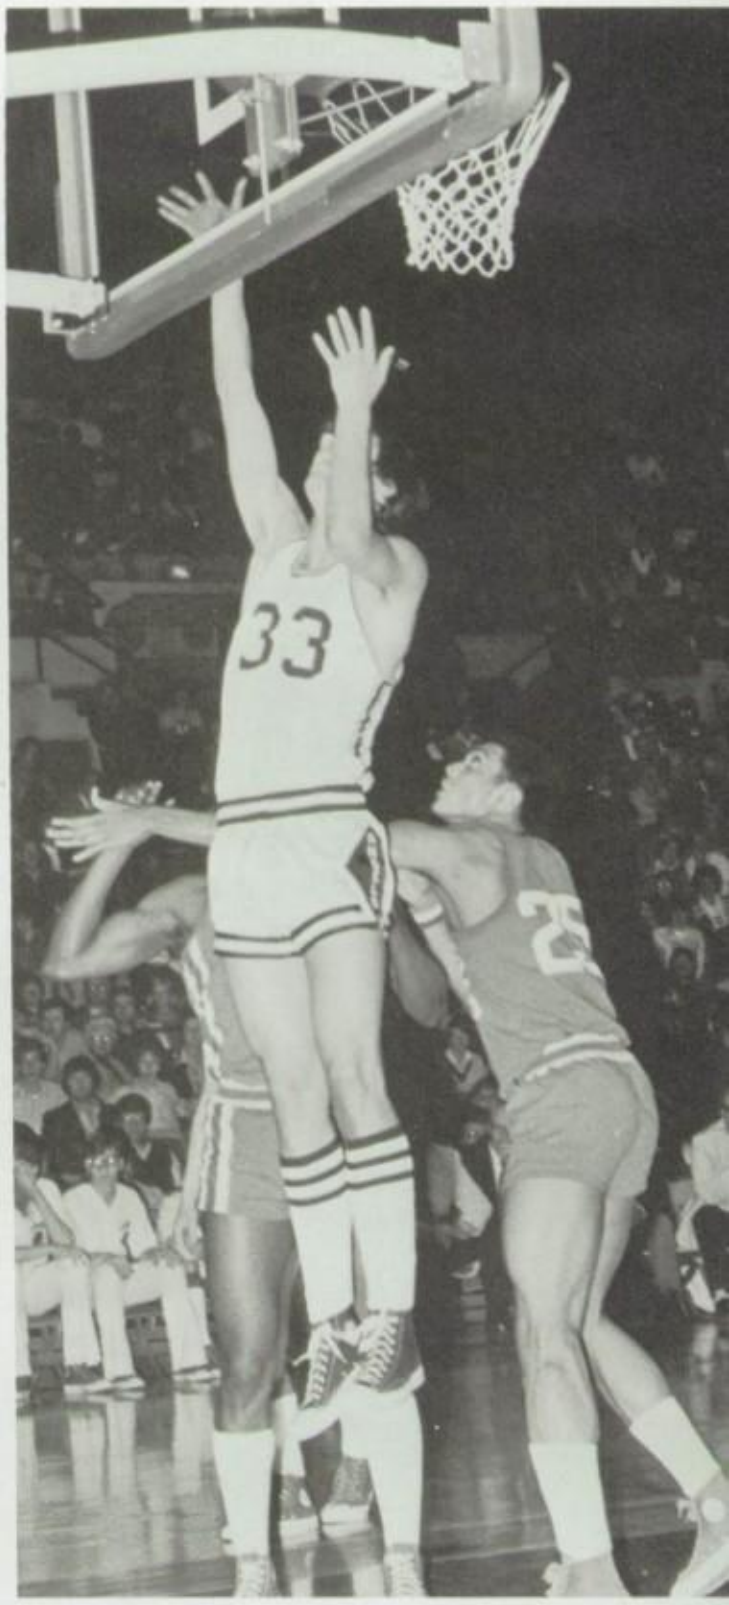
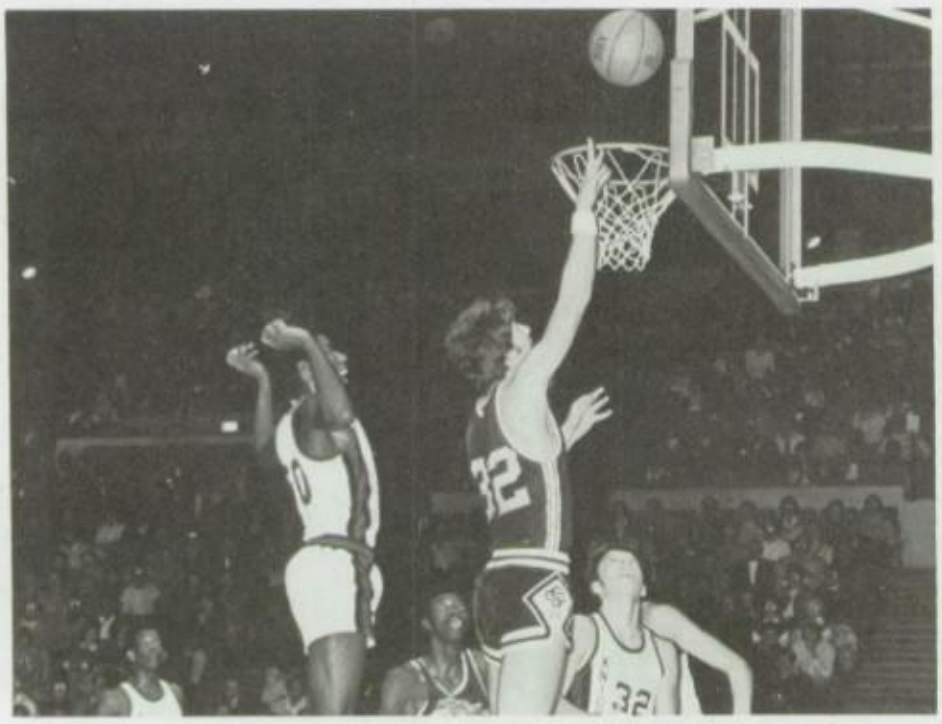
Tim Boldig pushes the score two points closer to Angel victory.

After the regional victory over Thomas Moore the doors were open to State.



This year's Varsity team struggled through an up-and-down season before advancing to State competition where they dominated their opponents, proving to be No. 1! This record-breaking event marked the 6th championship for teams coached by John McGuire.



The referee asks Jai Mahone, "How does this profile look?"

EXPERIENCE — THE GREATEST TEACHER

World Religions students travelled to the synagogue to see for themselves what a Hebrew Torah scroll looks like.

A key ingredient to education is outside discovery. Field trips are one way to help students experience new things — whether it be within the city, country, or even the world.

A day at Parkside offered Mass Media students behind-the-scen broadcasting experience.

好東

This past summer Mark Wenzel and Karen Buck had the opportunity to experience the chance of a lifetime. In honor of the Bicentennial, Japan Johnson offered a two-week visit to their country. Karen and Mark were among 14 other high school students chosen to discover the Japanese culture, and in doing so, brought back part of the Orient to SCHS.

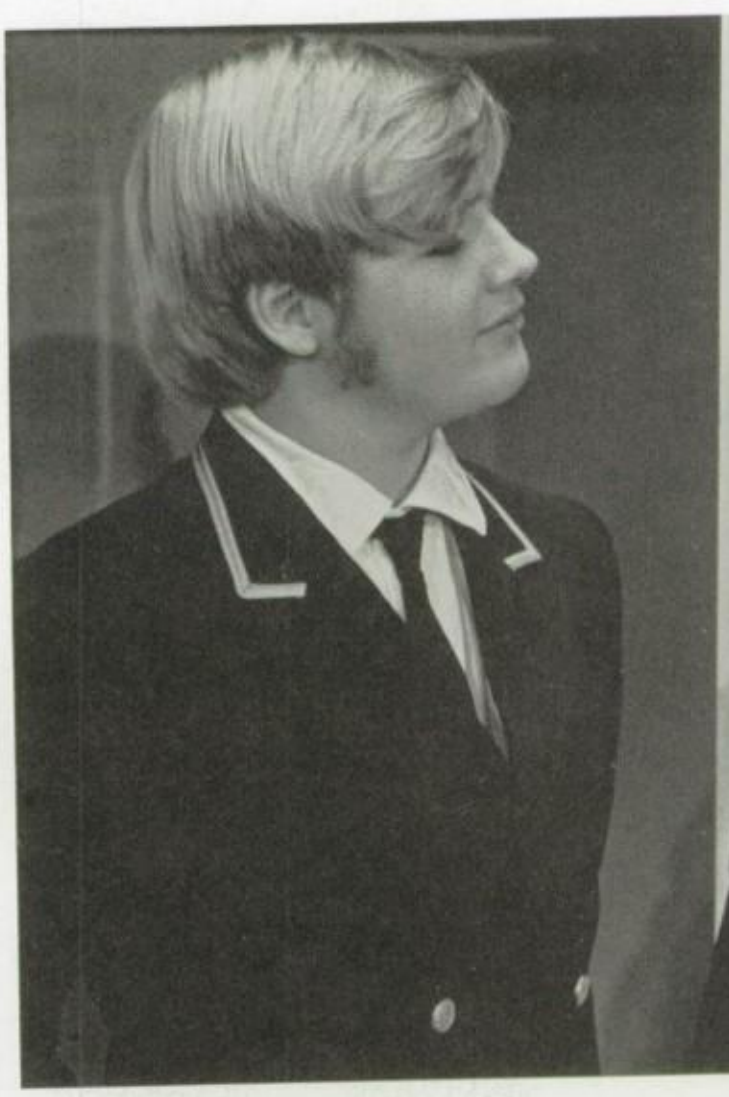
CALLBOARD
NEXT PRODUCTION
FOLLIES

TARTUFFE

The curtain opened this season with SCHS players adorned in silks and lace. The play was Tartuffe and the setting was 1664. The story revolved around a respectable, generous man, Orgon, (Steve Rupsch) who took in a pious fraud, Tartuffe (Mike Dobrowski). After tyranizing Orgon's family, Tartuffe finally earned his well-deserved fate — jail. Once again, good triumphed over all. Pictured are Ann Tilley, Steve Rupsch, John Schuessler, Pam Smith, Mike Mazurek, Barry Schliesmann, Lisa Floch, Cathy Coates, Mike Dobrowski, and Russ Blaha.

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY

For an evening of lighthearted entertainment, the players presented, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay." The story revolved around the adventures of two naive and parentless girls who were on an ocean voyage to Paris. Dramatizing these girls' antics were Mary Kay Horton and Mary Dretzka, supported by: Brian Cramer, Cathie Cotter, Pam Smith, Jenny Crull, John Schuessler, Mike Mazurek, Jim Shack, Barry Schielesmann, Margaret Noe, Pat Moore, and Mike Phillips.

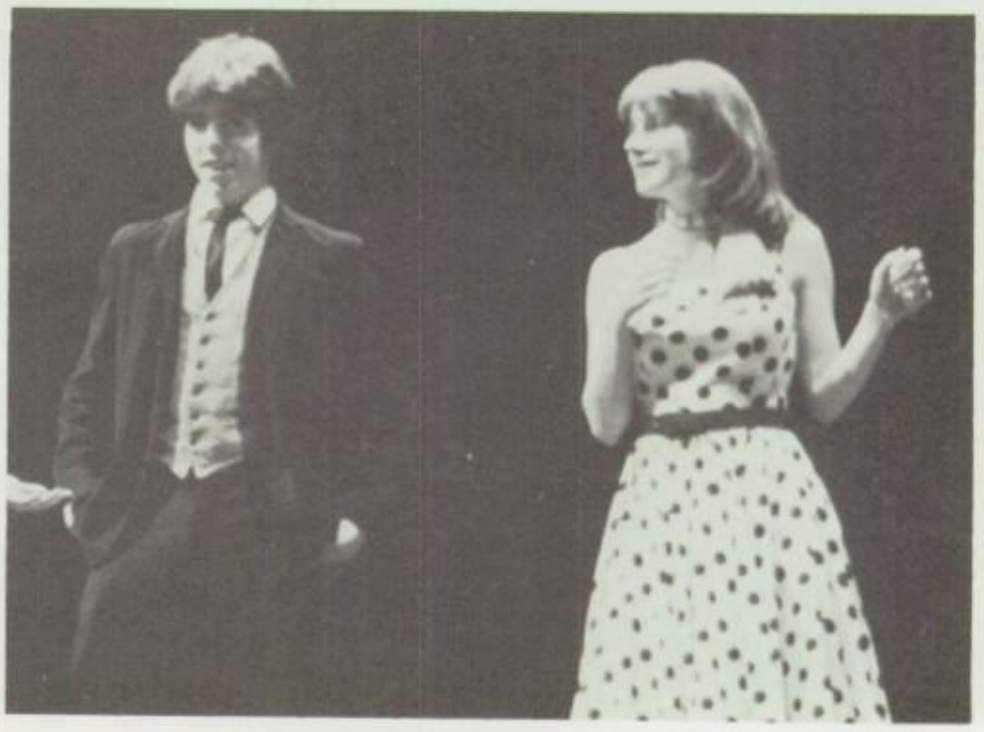


FOLLIES

Dimitri Weissmann sent his invitation and the cast of the Follies gathered for a reunion, held in commemoration of the old Theater's imminent destruction. The showgirls and their husbands painfully realized the folly of their own lives as the girls reenacted memorable Follies routines. Suddenly they became aware that life is a cycle of wanting to be old when you're young and young when you're old. The reason for their discontent became clear: love for others is possible only when you first love yourself.

Never before has Saint Catherine's staged such a lavish production of the hey-days of show business past.

Pictured are: Kay Draeger, Dave Kroes, Mike Phillips, Mary DeMark, Russ Blaha, Gretchen Wermter, Josie Polcin, Mike Dobrowski, Colleen Meissner, John Schuessler, Nancy Adamcyk, Pam Smith, Jane Knilicka, Jim Shack, Lisa Wells, Steve Rupsch, Lisa Feest, Cathie Coates, Jerry Organ, Dave French, John Buhler, Anne Tilley, Barry Schliesmann, Joe Hnilicka, Jim Meier, Mary Dretzka, Steve Buege, Andy Buege, and Cory Trecek.



PLAZA SUITE

This year's season closed with Neil Simon's second most popular Broadway play, Plaza Suite. Although this amusing comedy consisted of only 9 cast members, an incredible number of people showed their enthusiasm by trying out.

Pictured here are the players as well as some of the behind-the-scenes people who make not only Plaza Suite, but all our productions run smoothly and successfully. PLAYERS — Mary DeMark, Pam Smith, John Grant, Pat Moore, Anne Tilley, Mike Phillips, Kay Draeger, Paul LeRose and Steve Buege. STAGE CREW — Jim Lee, Pat Moore, Terri Bieneman, Kate DeGroot, Darlene Bodi, Bob Sharp, Tom Sharp, John Simanek, Tom Fervoy, Ed Simon, Bob Bugalski, Tom Lemke and Kevin Banse.

It only takes a spark to get a fire going
And soon
all those around can warm up to its glowing Now that I've experienced it . . .
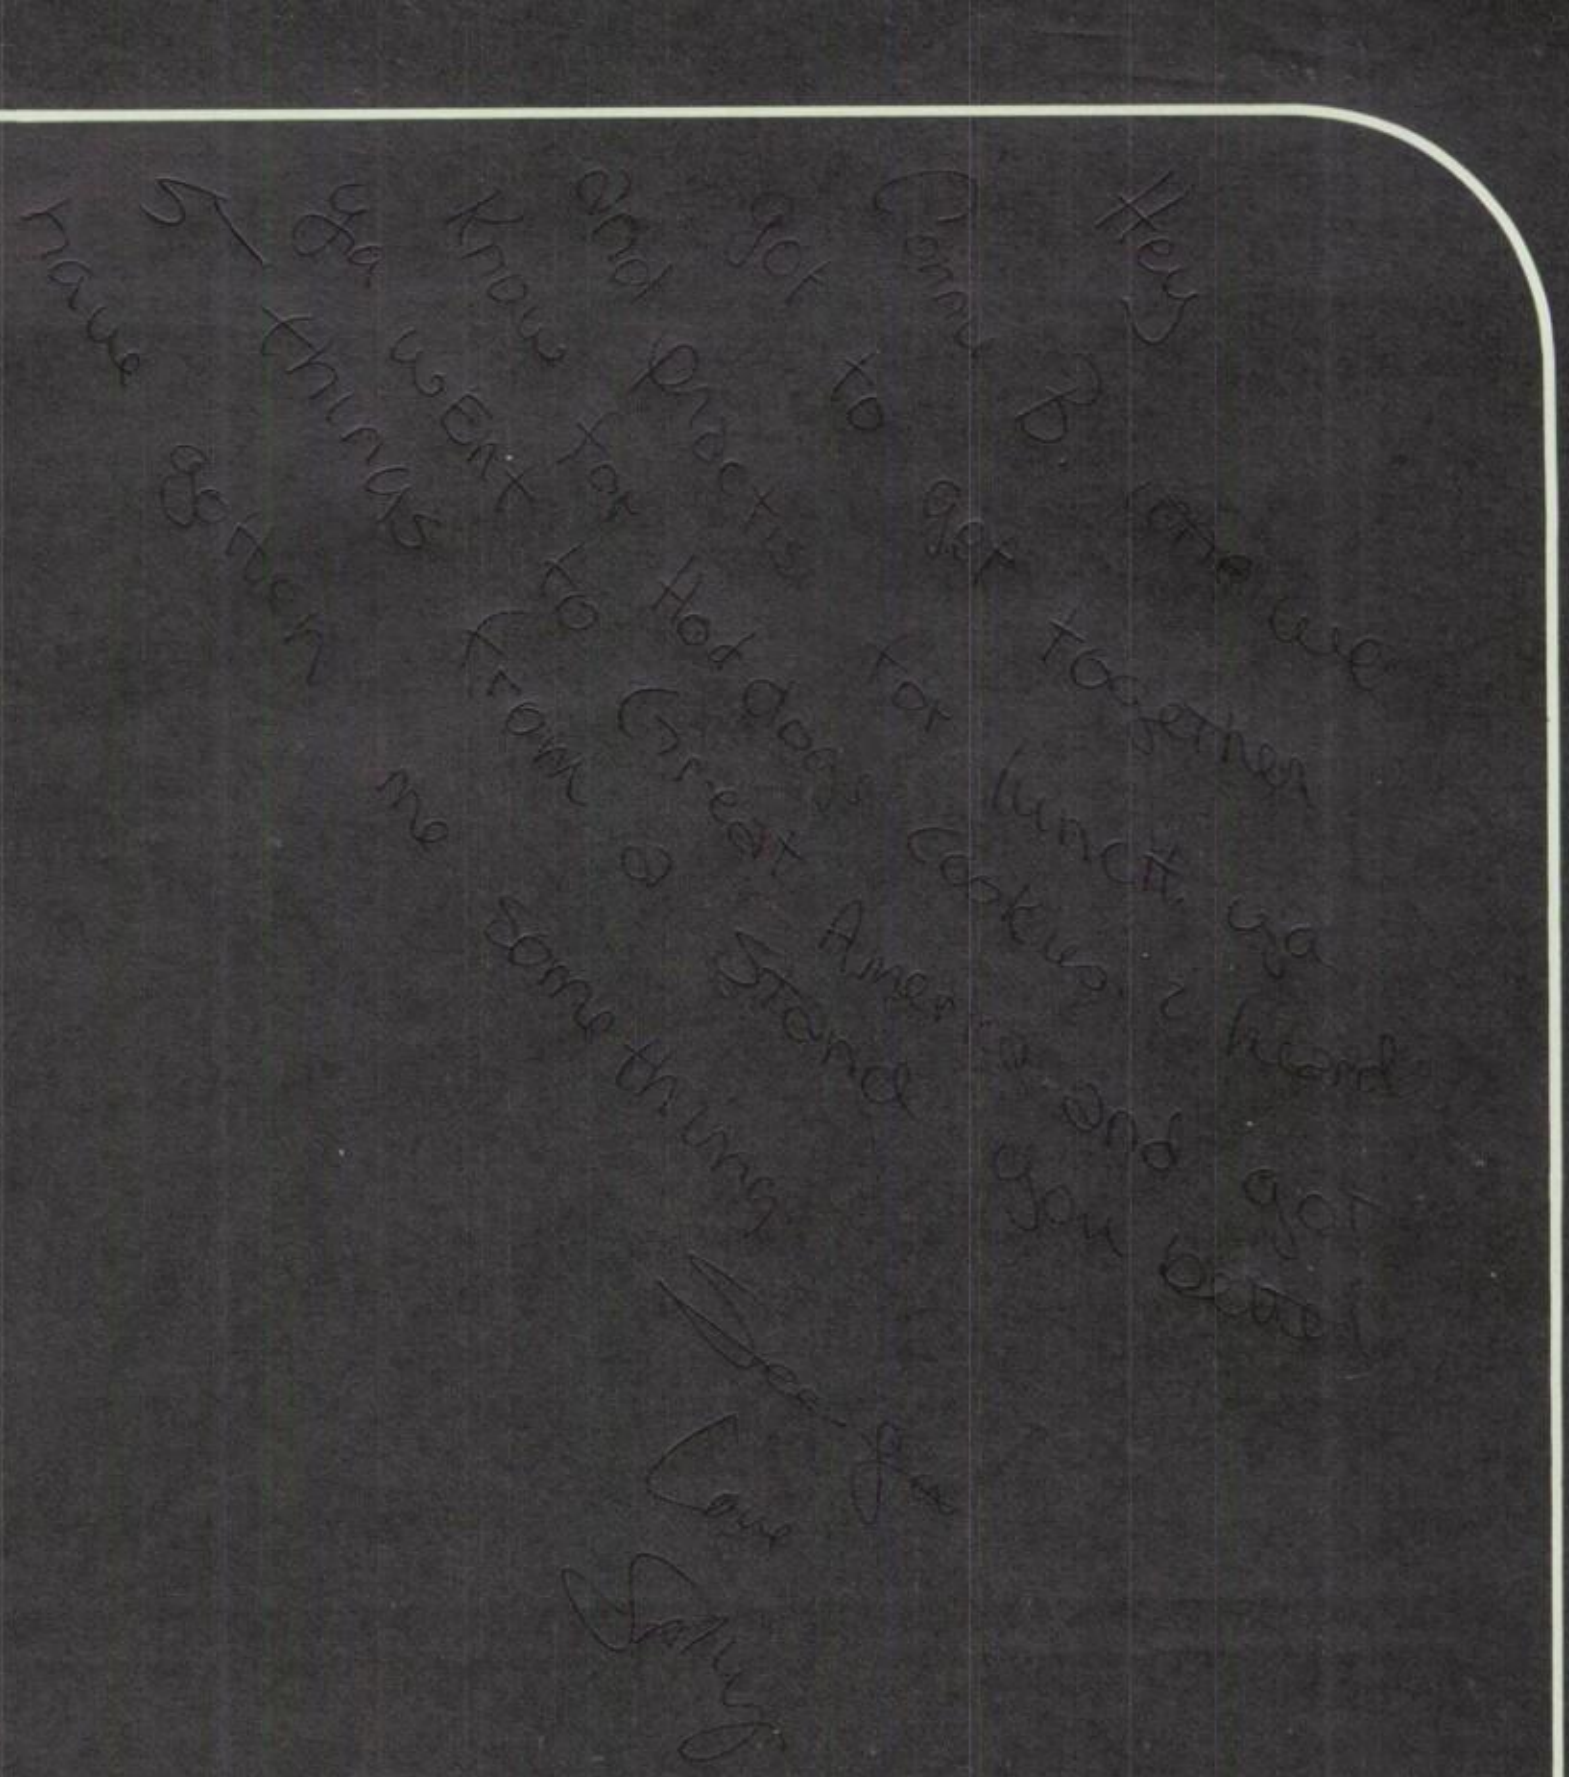
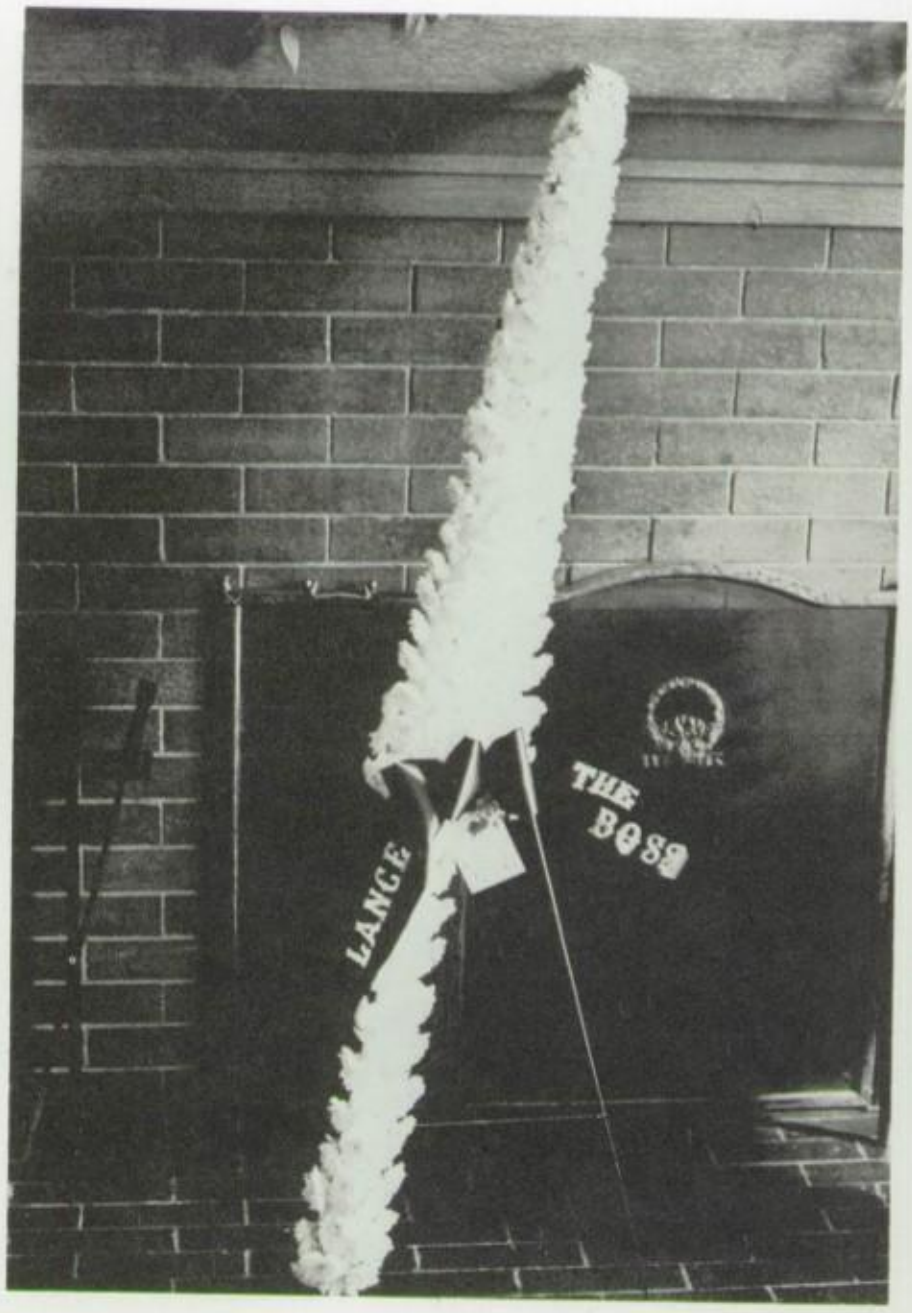
I want to pass it on.



"Everything that happens is but a beginning. And is not this His beginning for Dorothy. All beginnings are beautiful." (from Sister's funeral liturgy)

Sister Dorothy, after 53 years of earthly life, 28 years of religious profession, and 16 years as Lance advisor, entered Eternal life on Sunday, March 20, 1977.



After two years of coping with fatigue during the night time, spring fever during the daytime, and a slap-happy staff all the time, Miss LeMere has still managed to publish two great books. The time has come, however, to move on to different things. She has decided to further her education and will no longer have the time to be the yearbook advisor. Because of this, we wanted to give her something to show our appreciation. So we give her the only thing worthy of her hard work. We dedicate our book to Miss Lynn LeMere.

Connie,
You're a great friend and a super person. There are some special people from St. Johns but you're one of the Specialest!
Love you,
Denise

Connie,
We've been friends for about 5 years now & I hope it continues for a long time.

Jodie

Connie,
What can I say, but that you're like old clothes. I'll always be around for you, so give a holler, 'cause I really care.

Love,
Alice

Connie,
It's been great
getting to know
you and I hope
we both survive
this terrible Chemistry
class. Good luck
always!

Love,
Cathy M.

Hey Con
how's it going?
I'm glad I got to know you this year
And I got to see
you more this summer.
Remember the apples
that was fun. Hope to be in some of your classes this Summer.
friends always,
Darc
